Art Fundraiser

Orders for the Art Fundraiser are due tomorrow (money, orders and art). We will be sending the package off at the end of the day Friday. We will NOT be sending in late orders. Thanks for your understanding.

Parent Teacher Conferences

As part of the Pilot Reporting order, our parent-teacher conferences are 1 of 4 touchpoints that you will have with your child's teacher over the year. These touchpoints can come in various formats such as meetings, phone calls, emails, portfolio posts or a traditional written report. This feedback will be timely to your child's learning. Over the course of the year, teachers will communicate strengths and areas for growth in all subject areas with a final, summative report at the end of the year.

Parent's corner

Eric Termuende is an author from Cranbrook. He wrote the book: Re-Think Work: Finding and Keeping the Right Talent. Here is the advice he has for students:

10 Things Students Need to Know - by Eric Termuende

1. The world will continue to move faster. Get used to change.
2. It isn't work and life anymore. It's life and work is a part of it.
3. Stop trying to find your one passion.
4. Always be learning.
5. It's ok to be different.
6. Human connection is the new currency.
7. Strive to be a person - not a position.
8. Your greatest (and only) competition is yourself.
9. Be the change you want to see in the world.
10. Maybe you've already made it.
