POSTER & INFO

2016 Summer Reading Club: Book a Trip: Summer programs offered at the Cranbrook Public Library throughout the summer. Please see the attached memo for more information.

Fort Steele Camp Information: See the attached for more information on the Fort Steele fun and educational summer camp. Registration opens June 1st.

East Kootenay Organization for Human Dignity and Equality: The Humanity Network is once again pleased to present the film Salaam Neighbour, in recognition of the World Refugee Day, June 20th. This award-winning film connects the world to refugees through the journey of filmmakers Zach Ingrasci and Chris Temple. They were the first filmmakers ever allowed by the United Nations to be given a tent and registered inside a refugee camp (Za'atari refugee camp). This presentation is free and open to the public. Key City Theatre Monday, June 20th, 7:00 p.m.

If you would like more information on World Refugee Day, please visit <http://www.un.org/en/events/refugeeday/>. We look forward to seeing you there. If you would like more information about the documentary or the Humanity Network, please do not hesitate to contact Amy Cross at amycross@humanitynetwork.ca, <mailto:amycross@humanitynetwork.ca> or call 250-581-2111

Rocky Mountain Aboriginal Youth Hockey Camp: Please see the attached information for any Aboriginal hockey parents or youth. All Aboriginal youth only need to self-identify. All parents who register can pay at the start of the hockey camp.
